Information

This award is presented to a student with plans to pursue vocational training.

Vocational training is training for a specific career or trade, excluding the professions. Vocational training focuses on practical applications of skills learned, and is generally unconcerned with theory or traditional academic skills. A large part of the education in vocational schools is hands-on training.

Examples of "vocational" training programs include: medical office assistant, pharmacy technician, massage therapist, veterinary assistant, health care assistant, cosmetology, hair dresser, travel agent, cook, legal assistant, computer networking technician, early childhood educator, trades programs (electrical, plumbing, carpentry, mechanics, etc), audio technician, etc.

Information

This scholarship will be offered for 5 years beginning in June 2018.

The scholarship is for a deserving student going on to further study at a college or university.

The main selection criteria are:

- academic achievement
- the study of music

The candidate must have participated in a band/string program at Journey Middle School or EMCS, or have proof of music studies elsewhere.

The award may be offered to more than one candidate in a year.

Nicholas Watson was a bright, musical, vibrant, creative young man. He studied the euphonium, obtaining a Grade 5 standing on his instrument. He participated in JMS and EMCS bands, going to the Nationals in 2013. He was the youngest player for 3 years running in the annual Tuba Christmas in Victoria. His life was cut short by cancer at the age of 15 in 2016.

Location Greater Victoria

Information

Reid Kyfiuk was a 15 year old boy who died on December 22, 2015 in a snowboarding accident on Mt. Washington. He was a student in SD63 (Saanich). Reid was a very lively, ambitious and intelligent person, who lived life to the fullest. He always had a smile on his face and was continually thinking of ways to make others smile. He loved sports, especially hockey, baseball and golf. Reid truly believed in the Golden Rule of treating others as you wish to be treated and that's how he lived out his strong faith. His religious beliefs directly impacted the way he acted. He simply loved people. Without being obsessive, Reid worked hard at always improving himself. He loved being outdoors, and could usually be found practicing whatever sport was in season. He loved his family, and always enjoyed coming up with the best impromptu jokes when everyone was together. Reid could always make everyone laugh. We invite you to tell us about yourself and how you try to have some of the same qualities that Reid held.

Requirements:

- "B" average or better;
- Participated in, or tried out/auditioned for curricular classes or clubs or school teams, and/or community activities, and
- Active member of a faith group.

Information

Lion Audrey Wilson, wife of past district governor John Wilson, passed away December 16, 2013. Thoughtful, fun active, caring, often "mother hen" to her fellow Sooke Harbourside lions, Audrey was an outstanding community servant and a great friend to so many. Audrey served as a Lioness and a Lion in Sooke for nearly 30 years. She and John lived in Sooke their entire lives, where Audrey had served as a kindergarten teacher to many in the community. This bursary is awarded in her memory.

This bursary is meant to be applied to a post-secondary program at a recognized university, college, vocational school, or technical school.

Applicants must demonstrate financial need. In your essay, provide as much information as possible about your level of financial need.

Successful applicants have two (2) years to use the Bursary. If after 2 years, the applicant has not entered a post-secondary program, the money is forfeited unless there are extenuating circumstances.

Note: a signed attendance report is a required part of your application package.

Information

Each year, the fund provides financial assistance to deserving students who wish to pursue post secondary training in the artistic, academic or technical fields. It is the aim of the fund to make such education possible for students who may otherwise not have the financial means.

Up to eight Elmer Helm Youth Fund awards will be presented, of which a minimum of four will go to new recipients, while up to four may be given to prior recipients who are continuing their undergraduate studies. Each recipient will receive $1,500 in two payments of $750 in late August and January.

The Elmer Helm Youth Fund is open to young people under the age of 25 who wish to pursue post secondary training in an artistic, academic or technical field, and must be significantly involved in their community in a volunteer capacity. The fund is not primarily an academic competition. Evidence of strong academic achievement and potential is important. However, it is equally important that the applicant has demonstrated a significant contribution to the life of their community to exemplify the Neighbourhood House ideal of community services.

Location Greater Victoria

Information

BE CONFIDENT. BE HONOURABLE. BE VALIANT.

Alpha Chi Theta takes pride in being one of two sororities at the University of Victoria. As a local sorority Alpha Chi Theta is built upon four pillars; altruism, grace & integrity, fortitude, and perseverance. The purpose of Alpha Chi Theta is to promote loyalty and unity amongst our sisterhood, while lending a helping hand on campus and throughout the entire community. The Orchid bursary was founded in 2016-2017 in order for Alpha Chi Theta to recognize and reward a female student graduating high school from Victoria and the surrounding areas who demonstrates the four pillars of Alpha Chi Theta. The student must be attending the University of Victoria beginning September 2018 in order to qualify for this bursary. Should the recipient decide to not attend the University of Victoria, the bursary will be rewarded to the runner up. After proof of registration, a cheque valued at $350.00 will be sent to the University of Victoria's Registration and Tuition Office to pay partial tuition of recipient.

Information

This bursary is in memory of Freda Smith, a long time resident of Victoria. She retired as church organist in her parish in Esquimalt at the age of 85. Freda came to Canada in 1926. She settled first in Regina and relocated to Victoria in 1946. Freda promoted education whenever possible. She was an active member of the Catholic Women's League and earned the League's highest honour in 1958.

The bursary is awarded each year to a graduating Catholic student within the Diocese of Victoria. The student must be going on to post-secondary studies at a university, college, technical school, vocational school, etc.

Criteria: financial need, academic performance, community and church involvement.

Applicants must be children or grandchildren of members of the Catholic Church in the Diocese of Victoria.

More information and application form available in the EXTERNAL drawer of the scholarship filing cabinet in the counselling centre.
