

Strengthening Connections
February 20th 1pm EMCS Library
<https://strengtheningconnections.wordpress.com/about/>

Strengthening Connections is a group of Aboriginal recruiters and advisors from several BC post-secondary institutions with the mandate to provide Aboriginal peoples in BC with the information they need to successfully pursue a post-secondary education. Although Strengthening Connections members hail from individual institutions throughout BC, we work as a team across institutional lines to assist those we serve in finding the best options for them.

Below is a list of Strengthening Connections member institutions and a list of organizations that often join us at events

Simon Fraser

Kwanthen Polytechnic

University of Victoria Office of Indigenous affairs

British Columbia Aboriginal Policing Service

Emily Carr University of Art and Design

Vancouver Island University

Langara College for Higher Learning

University of British Columbia

British Columbia Institute of Technology

NVIT

Camosun